WEBINAR

Online communication

- Online communication is a form of communication, using various channels (mobile apps) available on Internet.
- Online communication provide communication and interactions.
- Online communication exists to relay a message to a targeted audience.

Communication Online Tools

Think about online learning tools in this way: online learning tools refer to any program, applications, or technology that can be accessed via an internet connection and enhance a teacher's ability to present information and a student's ability to access that information.

WhatsApp Messenger

- WhatsApp Messenger is a messaging and Voice over IP (VoIP) service owned by Facebook, Inc. It allows users to send text messages and voice messages, make voice and video calls, and share images, documents, user locations and other media.
- Although it is a very useful tool, it's massive use might be misleading and it's overwhelming production of memes, messages, pictures and conversation might lead to any person (with or without Intellectual Disability) to become unfocused and confused.
- We must be very careful with the information we send to other people.

ZOOM

- ▶ Zoom is a cloud-based video communications app that allows you to set up virtual video and audio conferencing, webinars, live chats, screen-sharing and other collaborative capabilities.
- ▶ Zoom users can choose to record sessions, collaborate on projects and share or annotate on one another's screens, all with one easy-to-use platform.

AUGMENTATIVE AND ALTERNATIVE COMMUNICATION (AAC)

- Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) includes all forms of communication (other than oral speech) that are used to express thoughts, needs, wants, and ideas.

That means that these methods are useful for persons with speech impairments.

- AAC may include facial expressions, gestures, body postures, sign language, drawing and writing.

INTERACTIVE PRESENTATIONS

- Interactive presentations are a great tool to involve more trainees in the class or workshop. The basic rule is that the trainer prepares a presentation with questions, a quiz, a statement to be assessed, and presents it to trainees giving them a special www address and id of presentation to make interaction possible.
- Teachers use this tool in their work, according their needs and creativity.

MENTIMENTER

Mentimeter

www.mentimeter.com, www.menti.com – for users

- Mentimeter is a tool that lets you engage and interact with your audience in real-time. The audience simply votes via mobile phones.
- Before the class, have a presentation prepared.
- Free account.

KAHOOT!

www.kahoot.com, kahoot.it - for users

- It is an incredibly tool that is engaging teachers and students to create and manage 'Kahoots' in the form of quizzes, surveys or polls.
- Technology is merely facilitating the social learning experience. The deepest way to use Kahoot in a classroom setting is to challenge students to become part of this learning. Kahoot is a tool that lead and encourages deep research, critical thinking, creativity, question design, as well as facilitation and presentation skills. Besides this use case, teachers guide entire lessons through the game - creating a fundamentally more social and engaged learning environment.

Safety information

- ▶ Teach your students, when they use applications, what information to share and what information not to share.
- ▶ To keep their personal information safe. Not to share their full name, location or password with anyone.
- ▶ To be careful what kind a videos and pictures they share online. For example, not to share embarrassing - naked photos and videos, private matters, confidential information.

Safety information

- Not to download unknown applications.
- Teach them, if something goes wrong, to ask help from their parents, friends and teachers – people that they trust.
- To contact the police in serious cases.
For example: bullying, rape, theft, assault.

CONCLUSION

- Online communication had many impacts on education especially with beginning of Covid 19.
- Online communication can be a powerful tool for developing communication skills and become more comfortable with social interactions.
- Online communication improve quality of life for persons with disability.

What is Video CV?

Video CV is a short recording used by a candidate to apply for a job.

The purpose of a CV in this format is to highlight a candidate's skills and experience while giving employers an insight into their personality. Video CVs are usually between 1 and 3 minutes long.

If you make your video CV yourself, you must have little filming experience or your video might come out unprofessional.

Tips for creating video CV:

- Be professional
- Find a good background
- Prepare a script
- Know your audience
- Show, don't tell
- Keep it brief
- Structure the video
- Plan your outfit in advance

Introducing yourself

Relevant skills and experience

Examples of your work

Technical aspects (filming and editing the video)
